

You are invited to attend the

Living Your Design Workshop!

(Would you please forward this invitation to those you think would be interested?)

This is the next step after your Human Design reading toward living your life to its fullest.

- ★ This workshop explores the road blocks we encounter as we experiment with the practice of living our Design.
- ★ Over the course of the two days, we will show you how all the forces that have conditioned you have moved you away from your true nature.
- ★ Once you become aware of these traps, you can more gracefully express your true self.

Enjoy being taught by Becky Markley & Coleen d'Avignon, Splenic Projectors.
This workshop is a powerful experience that guides you in this next level of Human Design study.

This Workshop will:

- Empower you to apply the knowledge of your Human Design to your life in a practical way.
- Enable you to understand how to live well with others who have different Designs.
- Give you the opportunity to feel and share the unique energy and gifts of your particular Type.

Won't you come and share this experience?
